

CODE OF CONDUCT

The club is affiliated to the British Gliding Association (BGA) and operates in accordance with the requirements of the European Aviation Safety Agency (EASA) the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA) and the BGA. Members of the club are required to conform to the Air Navigation Order (CAP 393) the BGA Laws and Rules/Recommended Practices as published on the BGA Website together with the rules and regulations particular to the club. Members must accept that Flight Safety and the safety of operations in general is the highest priority of the club.

This sports club is fully committed to safeguarding the well being of its members. Every individual in the club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for their rights, safety and welfare, and conduct themselves in a way that reflects these principles.